

ADVERTISING Homes

New condos feature pet-friendly services

12:00 AM CDT on Sunday, April 15, 2007

Several thousand Turtle Creek area residents – and their canine companions – attended Easter in The Park and the annual Pooch Parade, sponsored by the Turtle Creek Association. Corporate sponsors included Prescott Realty Group, developer of the New Tower Residences at the Stoneleigh. Guest judges included John Langston, shown, general manager of The Stoneleigh Hotel.

"If you've been toying with the idea of living in a luxury high-rise, but are unsure how your cherished pet will adjust, come to the Tower Residences at the Stoneleigh and let us introduce you and your cherished pet to a lifestyle you both will love," Mr. Langston says.

"We have a delightful list of services and amenities for pet-owners," Kyle Crews, sales director for The Tower Residences, says. "From pet-boarding to dog-walking to grooming, your pet will have it all.

For more information, call 214-530-2021, stop by the Tower Residences sales center open daily in the lobby level of The Stoneleigh Hotel, 2927 Maple Ave. at Wolf, or visit www.stoneleighresidences.com. Featured are a building model and full vignettes of completed kitchens and baths at the The Tower Residences.